Schuyler Nominated
To Be Full General

United Press

President Eisenhower yesterday nominated Lt. Gen. Cortlandt V. R. Schuyler, chief of staff at Allied Supreme Headquarters in Paris, to the rank of a full general.

The President also nominated Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, former Undersecretary of State, for reappointment to a new five-year term on the National Security Training Commission. The Commission makes recommendations on military training of youth.

Smith is an executive of the American Car Foundry Co.
